Narrative:

On Friday August 26th, 2019 at 1441hrs, Hamilton police were dispatched to 2 calls at the same address. Both were over 40 hours old, and involved the same persons. Both sides of the conflict called into police. [REDACTED] being one half, and Paul BOSCH the other.

Police then met with BOSCH at central PSO. BOSCH present with 4 pages of synopsis' about various time's he's been in a situation of "Besetting". These pages have been copied and scanned in.

There are no current criminal offence listed.

BOSCH then went to the video, and showed 3 different times he feels he was harassed around his residence.

Each time, BOSCH engaged in conversation and it appears that he turns his camera on, and initiates the conversation. There is foul language that goes back and forth between parties.

BOSCH is seen accusing [REDACTED] of recording him, and that it's illegal - this is on the camera that BOSCH is holding.

Regardless, nothing criminal came from any video - which BOSCH has saved to his online blog.

Police had a lengthy conversation with BOSCH with regards to his safety. BOSCH feels threatened, and not safe, but refuses to more because of "the principle of the matter".

BOSCH also stated that he only makes $400 a week, and affordable housing is hard to find. The writer offered the number to victim services to assist with this issue.

BOSCH was clearly distraught that police didn't make arrests for "besetting". Police recommended the RTA enforcement agency, which BOSCH stated he has 3 on-going matters with.

Police advised that BOSCH cease communication with all those involved. BOSCH stated that he's tried this and stated that he will always stand up for himself.

Police took a run at a number of ideas/options to help de-escalate the issues at 99 East Av S. BOSCH had an answer for all of them.

After about 45 minutes of going in circles, BOSCH finally agreed to disagree. BOSCH thanked police for their time and left the station.

It appears all sides are at fault. BOSCH has the ability to leave but refuses. He made reference that this isn't a "dance" - this is "war".

To summarize, nothing criminal took place. Once side isn't happy because BOSCH points a camera towards their home. BOSCH feels he's being harassed by everyone he lives with. No end solution.

Complete Solved - Non-Criminal.
