Location: Gaston County, NC

Victim(s): Kinsley White 6 (survived), Ashley HilderBrand (survived), William White (survived)

Attacker(s): Robert Louis Singletary

Description: Some children were playing basketball, when the ball rolled down the street and into Singletary's yard. Singletary, who was out on bond for allegedly hitting his girlfriend with a mini-sledgehammer, responded by running down the street firing a handgun at a neighbor, before running back and firing at William and his 6-year-old daughter Kinsley as they attempted to run away. Kinsley was shot in the face, while William was shot in the back, and Kinsley's mother Ashley was grazed.
