Charity Drive

Speak No Evil Day

Charity Drive Worksheet

You are going to put together a charity drive. A charity Drive is where you pull together items that charitable organizations need. It can be food, clothing, coats, and toys, or anything that can be donated. Your task will be to decide where to donate, what to donate, collecting donations, and dropping off those donations. You may even need to worry about storage until the date of donations.

So let's get to planning!

The first step is to decide where to donate. Some areas only have one location. Some have hundreds! So this is going to be a big decision. The easiest way to decide is to pull out your local phone book (or go online). Look up food bank and homeless shelters. The first is usually very welcoming of canned food; the second can always use jackets and blankets in the winter months as well.

So see what you have locally and write them down HERE:

NAME:

Address:

Phone:

---

---

---

---

---

---

---

Now narrow these choices down by deciding what you would like to donate. Do you want to round up winter jackets? How about canned food? What about toys for homeless children? What do you think will benefit those in need the most?

I want to donate: _____

Charity Drive Worksheet

---

Now call up each of the locations that fit what you desire to donate and see if you can arrange a date for a delivery! You will need to make sure that there are no requirements that you need to follow. There is nothing worse than showing up with a bunch of toys to hand out and finding out you can't give them to the kids that are so desperate for toys!

Basically you will call them up and say:

“Hi, I would like to do a charity drive and donate some canned food products to your food bank. Are there any requirements that I need to know before I do this?”

Then you need to find out if you need to make an appointment to donate by saying:

“Can I make an appointment for drop off or will any day and time be fine?”

The next question is very important. You need to know WHERE to drop off donations. Some programs have a separate location for donations then where they distribute the items. So ask for the drop off location:

“Where can I drop off our donations?”

A final question of specific needs can really help a shelter or food bank. You can ask by simply saying;

“Do you have any specific items that your shelter is in need of? Like tooth paste or sugar?”

I gave you some ideas on how to ask, but they are kind of mixed in with the explanations and there is no place to write out their answers. So let's work out what YOU need to say to make the most of your phone conversations!

If you are donating to more than one location you will want to print one copy for each location! Make sure you write down the person's name who you talk to on the phone!! This is your point of contact.

Hi, I would like to do a charity drive and donate some _____ for your

Ok Great Job! Now we can take this information and let's plug it in for your donation calls. Now there is a rule that we must talk about first. NEVER contact any person without your parents knowing. The rule of thumb is this; if you don't know them and your parents don't know them-don't talk to them without your parent right there. This is a safety issue. Your life and safety is much more important to everyone concerned. Please follow this essential rule!

So now we need to get your script ready to make donation calls:

Hi, _____ (who you are calling), this is _____ (YOU). I'm doing a charity drive for _____ (name your organization). I was wondering if you will be able to assist me by donating some _____ (list the items you are trying to collect).

(Wait for answer and questions. Be sure to have these answers ready before you call!)

Date of Pick up: _____

Time of pick up: _____ This may depend on how many people you are contacting! You may need to have them choose a time.

Can they drop it off early to your house: _____ (Do you have your parent's permission?)

Be sure to ask what they are donating!! If they don't know just yet, that is just fine!

So now that leaves us with just WHO should you contact? These are people that you already know (as I already pointed out). Try people from church, from youth groups, from your parents work, and your neighbors. So fill in the chart with these people in mind. Then show your parents and get their OK before you contact anyone. If you add someone to the list, please be sure to double check with your parents!

You will use this chart when you are contacting everyone. This is how you will keep track of who can help, who can't and what they are donating and when! If they can't help, just draw a line through their name. If they can help, once they have dropped off or you have picked up their items, then draw a line through their name. Use the check box to make reminder calls the day before pick up!

[illegible]

Charity Drive Worksheet

---

Here is a check list of things you need to do. Be sure to check with it often to make sure you get it all done.

√ Done	Item to do
	Choose location to donate
	Contact charity and get details for donations
	Choose a date for donation and make appointment if necessary
	Decide which items you need to collect.
	Fill out contact chart, have parents double check it
	Make request for donation calls
	Prepare a location to store any items that will be collected or dropped off early
	Make reminder calls the day before pick up or drop off
	Pick up and receive items.
	Contact anyone still on the list whose Items are missing.
	Drop off donations at the location at the appointed time.
	Make a journal entry about how helping others and donating your time shows compassion for your fellow human beings. Include anything that you have learned from this experience.

Ok, now that you have it all filled out, you are ready to go! I wish you luck! Keep in mind that you are not doing this for a grade. You are doing this to help others in need. It doesn't matter if you can get one person to donate or 100! Just as long as you put forth the effort to remember those that may be going through a tough time in their life. Christ once said: "When you have done it unto the least of these, my brethren, you have done it unto me." To have Compassion and Charity is to have the pure love of Christ. Keep that in mind as you work on your charity drive. It's out of love that we serve. Even if that service isn't perfect! Just keep at it!

Today you are going to plan for a Speak No Evil Day. You will send out invitations via regular mail or email. You will try to get everyone to promise to use kind words and deeds for each other for just one day.

First decide when you want to host your Speak No Evil Day. Then make your invitations. Let as many people know as you can. Neighbors, friends, church members, ask your parents to mention it at work, send it out in email, if your parents (or you) have a blog, ask if they will post it on there.

Remind everyone the closer you get to your date. Make signs for around your home, resend the emails, remind your friends.

Then on your date, make sure that you treat everyone with respect. Make sure that you do your best to speak no evil. If someone is unkind to you or someone else, just gently remind them that it is speak no evil day and move on. Be the shining example that others can follow. no matter the provocation, keep to your day!

Step 1: Choose a date for your Speak No Evil day:_____

Step 2: Invite others to participate in your challenge, begin with an invitation. These can be simple typed up invitations that you cut apart and hand out.

Example of an invitation:

You have been invited to participate in a challenge. Speak No Evil Day has been planned for Friday, ____ __, 2009. It is your challenge to speak only kind words to everyone you meet. You should do everything you can to be nice to your friends, neighbors, spouse and children. Tell them you love them and appreciate them. Be kind to the bully on the school ground. Remind others to be nice as well. This is the day to practice the Golden Rule: Do unto other's as you would have them do unto you!

Do you accept this challenge?

Step 3: Remind others often of the upcoming date!

Step 4: Be a shining example!!
